Dr Susie Baboo Samuel, the daughter of our late Canon Samuel Baboo is the author of the book "The Bear Wore a Swimsuit" which was published in 2023.

This book is about Dr Susie's life journey and growing up experiences as a daughter of an Anglican priest. She has fondly shared about her time in Christ Church Singapore.

The sale proceeds of this book go to a charitable organisation in India called The Banyan which rescues destitute women off the streets and specially helps people affected in their mental well-being because of gender, caste, and class differentiation.
